Membership charge

Band	Description	Annual Sub*
A	Band A is for members with little or no income, not receiving benefits nor being supported by anyone else, e.g. asylum seekers.	£5.14 (£2.60)
B	Band B is for members who depend on benefits to meet their outgoings.	£20.58 (£10.30)
C	Band C is for members who are in receipt of wages or pensions but need to take care in order to pay their monthly bills. They may be single householders and paying high rents on a low income. They would be net recipients of subsidies from other members' fees, to a limited extent.	£30.87 (£15.45)
D	Band D is for members who manage their expenditure fairly easily. They may, for example, have savings, own their own home or be able to share living expenses. They would pay a small amount more than the full cost of their Red Rope membership each year.	£45.27 (£22.60)
E	Band E is for members who have no financial difficulties and are in a comfortable position regarding housing costs and savings. Their membership fees would go some way towards subsidising less well-off members	£53.51 (£26.75)
F	Band F is for members who have a high income or savings and can easily meet their outgoings. They are likely to be, or have been, in a well-paid job, and/or have substantial savings. Their fees include a significant contribution to subsidise less well-off members.	£65.85 (£32.90)

If joining after July 1st, (to 31st October) you may reduce your fee to 50% of the annual fee. (50% is listed in brackets)
